

New Group

ANGER MANAGEMENT

Contact Main Office Reception For Upcoming Dates 734-240-3850

A 12-week evidence based treatment program of cognitive behavioral group therapy to help people in recovery learn skills to manage their anger.

Lessons combine relaxation, thinking and communications skills aimed at personal development and ultimately strengthening the individual in recovery's support system.

All participants completing the group successfully will receive a certificate.

